A. W. Keene of Boston is to give a lecture on music in the Baptist church this evening. In illustration of his theme he will have the assistance of several of his pupils, among whom are Miss Pinkie Keel Lewis of this city, Joseph Vian and Mrs. George M. Goss of Montpelier. The selections sung will be from the works of Handel, Haydn, Gounod, Godard, Gluck and others.

DE FOREST WIRELESS TELEGRAPH

Successful Tests of Overland Transmission Made.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 8.—The first practical test overland of the De Forest wireless telegraph has been made. Signals were received from Buffalo, a distance of 180 miles direct, three-fourths of this distance being overland. The tests were conducted personally by H. Lee De Forest, who came here for that purpose.

The experiments extended over a period of several hours, the communications received consisting of cipher and the wireless code messages. No attempt was made at sending replies, the sending apparatus not being as yet properly adjusted.

It is claimed that the messages received were sent a longer distance overland than has ever before been accomplished.

THE WRITERS.

Anthony Hope, Stanley Weyman, Richard Whiteing and Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler will all bring out new novels in the coming season.

Bjornstjerne Bjornson has chosen his recent novel, "Thomas Rendalen," as the medium for discussing his ideas on educational reform, especially in girls' schools.

Mrs. Hodgson Burnett admitted on one occasion that she wrote for money. "I write stories for the same reason as another woman takes in washing," she said—"that is, because I want the money, and that is the only way in which I can earn it."

Mlle. Lucie Faure, the daughter of the ex-president of France, has become engaged to M. George Goyau. The wedding will be essentially one of letters, as both Mlle. Faure and her fiancé have an established position among the writers of the day.

Our Ships Not to Go to China.
Washington, Aug. 10.—The navy department has authorized a denial of the report that the European squadron is destined for Chinese and Japanese waters. It is stated that the cruise of the squadron will probably be confined to the Mediterranean until December next, when the entire squadron will sail for the West Indies to take part in the naval maneuvers arranged for next January.

Another Negro Lynched.
Hattiesburg, Miss., Aug. 10.—A negro, Amos Jones, was hanged by a mob here for shooting and mortally wounding Jailor M. M. Sexton while trying to escape.

Are you about to build? If so see that your builder's contract has a clause providing that the structure shall be erected by union labor which will insure you of good work and a job completed without delay. Per order Union 481, Carpenters and Joiners of America, S. R. Doy, Sec.
